Welcome to our 48th annual Tri-State Gas Engine and Tractor Show. A place where you meet with new friends you have made and visit with the old friends.

We had another record swap meet this spring with 300 plus units coming in before 8:20 on opening day.

Check new riding cart rules.

On behalf of the directors and officers, we want to thank all our volunteers who help make the show.

Enjoy yourselves, look out for one another and be courteous to all.

The Window

A young couple moves into a new neighborhood. The next morning, while they are eating breakfast, the young wife sees her neighbor hang the wash outside.

"That laundry is not very clean," she said to her husband.

"The neighbor doesn't know how to wash correctly."

Perhaps she needs better laundry soap."

Her husband looked on; but remained silent.

Every time her neighbor hung her wash to dry, the young woman, would make the same comments.

About one month later, the young woman was surprised to see a, nice clean wash on her neighbor's line and said to her husband, "Look! She has learned how to wash correctly. I wonder who taught her this?"

The husband said; "I got up early this morning and cleaned our Windows!"

Mother's Mending Art

My mother kept a mending bag
That hung beneath a shelf
In a cozy back room closet
Where each one could help himself
For any kind of patches
Or a cloth  to shine the car,
And even for a  quilt, it held
A piece shaped  like a star.
It seemed to be the very place
For storing scads of things,
Like worn-out socks and underwear,
And paper bags and strings.
Long bandages from worn-out sheets,
In leisure hours, she made,
From this bulging mending bag.
She often used first aid.
And if she rummaged deep enough
In this mending bag of art.
She always found the "patch of love"

That Old Dinner Bell

by Lester A Carr, Muncie, IN

That old dinner bell
Of long, long ago
Stood in the weather
Through sunshine and snow
It stood day and night
Right there on that post
That welcoming ring
Is what I liked most
In the fields, we toiled
Those hot summer days
From early to late
Without any praise

When noontime approached
More hunger it brings
Oh, that welcome sound
When dinner bell rings

The color was black
It rang loud and clear
And we in the fields
Knew dinner was near

After all these years
I can hear those rings
I can hear them now
Fond memories it brings
